

Post-Op Frenulectomy

Your child may have a swollen lip for a few days. If the lip becomes reddened or swelling increases, please contact your physician.

Minor bleeding should be controlled by applying continuous pressure to the surgical site.

There is minimal to no discomfort with this procedure; any pain can be managed with TYLENOL® or acetaminophen.

Your child may resume their normal diet immediately following surgery.